FOUNDER JOHN BURA

Mammoth Interactive began in 2008 when programmer John Bura made a bunch of games for the App Store. In 2010, fans came to him wanting to learn how to make games.

John created video tutorials on making games from start to finish. Since then, his game development studio and online education company continues to grow.

John began programming games in 1997 and teaching in 2002. Since 2011 he has been a top-selling online instructor on Udemy.

He has a daughter named Charlotte. In his spare time, he likes to cycle, ski, and play ultimate Frisbee.
